Protected? ELDON Wasn't

No, we are not asking about fences, vaccinations, or heartworm. We are asking if your pets are protected if something should happen that would make it impossible for you to keep them and take care of them.

Most people with minor children have appointed a trusted relative or friend to take responsibility for them in case of death or disability, but few have taken steps to ensure that their pets are cared for if personal disaster should strike.

It is not enough that you make provision in your will for their care. By the time your will is read, your pets could already have been euthanized or turned over to the local animal shelter.

The first thing you should do is ask a trusted relative or friend if she is willing to assume responsibility for your pets. If that person consents, the second thing you should do is prepare and sign a written document stating your wishes concerning your pets and give it to your pets' guardian.

If any of your dogs were adopted from HHGDR, make sure that the first thing that guardian does is notify the Rescue. Finally, in your will, you should provide for the financial support of your pets to the best of your ability.

ELDON's owner passed away leaving no written plans for his care. ELDON ended up at a county shelter.

Arts & Crafts Show—Volunteers and Crafts Needed

HHGDR will have a booth at the craft show in Greendale, Indiana, on Saturday, October 28. All the proceeds from our booth go to Harlequin Haven.

In the past we have sold seasonal/holiday décor, home-made dog treats, home-made human treats, wooden items, jewelry, afghans, pot holders, metal work, etc. You name it, as long as it is hand-made, we can sell it!

If you are crafty or know someone who is and would like to donate items to benefit the Rescue, we sure could use them. Please contact me if you need items picked up. We can also make arrangements for items to be dropped off at a central location.

I am also looking for volunteers to help the day of the show—help with set-up, sales, and tear-down. It's a long but rewarding day, and fun! Many people shop our booth just knowing that the money goes to help the dogs and often make extra donations. It's also a great way to raise awareness about homeless Danes and our Rescue.

Please contact me if you would like to participate in any way! Thank you! Beth Mack caylan60@hotmail.com

HHGDR Mission Statement

To educate people about spay/neuter and the need for sterilization of all pets, proper health care of a pet, and nutritional requirements.

To promote humane principles, to protect homeless, abandoned, and mistreated Great Danes, and other animals as space allows.

To work with animal shelters and humane societies to protect Great Danes.

To locate life-long homes for the homeless Great Danes and any other animal in our care.

The Harlequin Haven Great Dane Rescue Newsletter is published four times a year by the Rescue.

Submit items of interest to Newsletter Editor Janet Carleton at janet.carleton@gmail.com.

Current and back issues are available from the website and by request.

Planned Giving

Planned gifts are a vital pathway to the financial future of HHGDR. To honor the Danes with your long-term gift is perhaps the most compelling way you can make a difference in their lives.

We are very thankful to anyone who remembers Harlequin Haven in a will, trust, life insurance policy, and/or other planned gift.

Please check with your attorney or other professional consultant to be sure your plans conform to all relevant laws.

Dangerous Dog Laws in Ohio

Have you viewed our online presentation about the 2012 Ohio dangerous Dog Laws recently? Perhaps it's time for a review on such an important subject.

Formatted as PowerPoint with audio, the 30-minute presentation's purpose is to educate about these laws and how they may affect you and your dog. Please do not make the mistake of thinking that these changes will never affect you.

The Rescue thanks our attorney Mary Beth Gettins, Esq., for taking the time to research these laws and create this presentation.

Summer... And Fall... And Bugs!

Warmer weather is still here, and with it comes fleas, ticks, mosquitoes, and other annoying insects. Besides being pesky, insects can transmit disease and parasites.

Fleas: Your dog can get tapeworms by swallowing a flea.

Mosquitoes: Deadly heartworm is transmitted by these pesky insects. Be sure your dog is on heartworm preventative, and tested annually.

Ticks: The deer tick carries Lyme Disease.

Consult your veterinarian about protecting your dog from these and other insects.

Choices... Deciding Where to Get Your Next Dog

There are many choices in today's world of where to get your next dog. You can go to a breeder, and add to the homeless population. You can look on Craigslist and worry that the person getting rid of the dog is lying about why they are getting rid of their dog. You can go to a county animal shelter or humane society and adopt, which does save a life, but rarely do they know much about the dog.

Or you can adopt from a rescue where the dogs are typically temperament tested, vetted, personalities are known, and by doing so help save another dog's life. Rescues are no-kill, plus with each dog adopted they are able to bring in another dog and save its life.

A reputable rescue works to make the right match so that the dog will have the forever home they dream of, and will support an adopter for the life of their dog. There is no shortage of available dogs, no matter what the breed, but we in the rescue world ask people to think hard before making their decision.

About the Rescue

HHGDR has operated as a volunteer-run Rescue since 1992. It became a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit in 1998, and to date has placed 1,559 dogs in carefully screened forever homes. HHGDR serves Ohio, extreme northern Kentucky, and parts of eastern Indiana. Currently 13 dogs are available for adoption. In addition, the Rescue houses Sanctuary Dogs living out their lives in the safe environment of the Rescue (the latter unadoptable for health, age, or other conditions). In 2016, HHGDR spent more than $52,000 on vet bills alone. Contributions are always welcome and are tax-deductible.

Contact the Rescue at info@hhdane.org.

Please see “How to Help” on the HHGDR site to contribute to the care and welfare of the homeless dogs.

Volunteers perform all the tasks for the Rescue—there are no paid staff! Almost any task a business would need, the Rescue needs too. Volunteers assist with transporting supplies and dogs, cleaning and upkeep of the Rescue facility, grooming dogs, raising funds (such as “Dungarees for Danes” at the workplace, and collecting proofs of purchase and used toner cartridges), accounting, grant writing, awareness events, writing for the newsletter, social media, and PR, to state a few. Some tasks require actually visiting the Rescue, many others do not.

Awareness events are often held at festivals and pet supply stores. Volunteers set up a table with educational material provided by the Rescue and bring their dogs along. Passersby enjoy meeting the successfully adopted dogs and hearing about those that still need forever homes. Volunteers also educate on the pet store/puppy mill connection and the need for spay/neuter of all pets.

HHGDR would love to put you to work helping the homeless dogs!

Arts & Crafts in the Park—thank you!

We want to thank everyone, especially organizer Beth Mack, who donated their time, crafting ability, and money to have made this year's Arts & Crafts in the Park Lawrenceburg, Indiana, on September 10, yet another success!

Mozart's Mission @ HHGDR

MOZART DANE (2004–2016) painted with his paws to help support the Rescue and provide for the homeless dogs. He was the Rescue spokesdog against puppy mills, pet stores, and for spay/neuter.

HHGDR continues to honor Mo by taking up his quest to end the abuse and neglect of dogs and puppies in puppy mills. The Mozart Dane Facebook page and Twitter account have been rebranded as Mozart's Mission @ HHGDR, so please visit and support his memory and efforts.

A small percentage of his life's work of beautiful and unique paintings remain unsold. See them on the Rescue website—all of the funds go to supporting the homeless dogs at the Rescue.

In Mo's memory we are asking all who have purchased a painting to send a photo of it to us at Mozart@hhdane.org. We'll share them on Facebook.

Visit and support Mo's Mission at facebook.com/MozartDane and hhdane.org/mozart/.

Training... is Very Important

We strongly encourage all adopters to enroll in an obedience class. Even if you already know how to train, it is important for your dog to be trained in a group. This helps with bonding to you and teaches your dog how to get along with strangers—human and canine. Large strong dogs need to know good manners!

Look for positive trainers. The Association of Professional Dog Trainers site, <http://www.apdt.com>, can help with your search.
