Are you and your family ready to add a second (or third, or fourth) dog to your family?

At HHGDR, we are always happy when a previous adopter returns to adopt a second Dane. After all, who wouldn't want to double the pleasure of living with a goofy, loving, gentle giant? But remember, that also means double the vet bills, heartworm preventative, and food. We understand it's a big decision and to help you, here are some things to consider before taking the plunge. With enough forethought and planning, you can make this a positive decision.

First, and maybe foremost, does your current pet want a buddy? Dogs are pack animals and generally, want a companion. But, does yours? How does she react around other dogs? Does he clearly enjoy being around others or is he fearful?

Another consideration is the sex of the dog. Generally speaking, opposites do better, and it is believed that males are actually inhibited towards aggression to females. Some believe that two females are not a good mix, but personally speaking, I have not experienced it.

For this, and other reasons, HHGDR requires all dogs living in your home come to meet their potential housemate. And often, it is the current dog who chooses their new buddy!

Are you able to take a few days off to help your new dog settle in, learn the routine and begin the bonding experience? It helps so much if you can be around to observe all the interactions and intervene immediately to correct the situation and establish yourself as the one at the top of the pecking order. Like raising a child, be sure you have set your expectations before they become teenagers!

Your first focus needs to be on your long-time fur baby, so while you are bonding and falling in love with your new dog, be sure not to ignore your existing pet. You don't want them to feel ignored, left out, or replaced.

HHGDR Mission Statement

To educate people about spay/neuter and the need for sterilization of all pets, proper health care of a pet, and nutritional requirements.

To promote humane principles, to protect homeless, abandoned, and mistreated Great Danes, and other animals as space allows.

To work with animal shelters and humane societies to protect Great Danes.

To locate life-long homes for the homeless Great Danes and any other animal in our care.

The Harlequin Haven Great Dane Rescue Newsletter is published four times a year by the Rescue.

Submit items of interest to Newsletter Editor Janet Carleton at janet.carleton@gmail.com.

Current and back issues are available from the website and by request.

GABRIANNA

My owners called Harlequin Haven when I got sick, I was vomiting, had diarrhea and was unable to eat or drink. They said they could not afford to take me to a vet! Lucky for me HHGDR agreed to take me! I was hospitalized because I have Parvo. I have been in the hospital for a week and I am still struggling to eat.

Update 8/19: I was released from the hospital this afternoon and I am now resting at the Rescue. I am still isolated since I am still contagious.

Update 8/25: Wow! It is great to feel good again! I am making up for not feeling good! I eat 4 meals a day, plus snacks and am still hungry! I also just want to play play but I gotta stay in isolation for another week so I don't spread the parvo!

Update 9/16: Today I went to the vet to be spayed! I know I'll feel a little sick at first, but compared to the parvo, it will be a breeze. Plus it means that I will be available for adoption very soon! I cannot wait to find my very own forever family (I'll still love you Grandma!)

RENEE

I was found roaming the country roads in Brown County and taken to the county shelter. When my stray time was up I was brought to Harlequin Haven Great Dane Rescue. Yeah, I was shocked too, since I am a far cry from being a Great Dane but Grandma felt sorry for me!

I am old, with no teeth and my tongue hangs out but Grandma says I am sweet as sugar and cute as an old button! Hey whatever works, cause I was scared to death at the shelter! I'm went with GABRI-

ANNA to be spayed today, and will be available for adoption very soon!

About the Rescue

HHGDR has operated as a volunteer-run Rescue since 1992. It became a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit in 1998, and to date has placed 1,588 dogs and horses in carefully screened forever homes. HHGDR serves Ohio, extreme northern Kentucky, and parts of eastern Indiana. Currently 11 dogs and 1 horse are available for adoption. In addition, the Rescue houses Sanctuary Dogs living out their lives in the safe environment of the Rescue (the latter unadoptable for health, age, or other conditions). In 2017, HHGDR spent more than $20,700 on vet bills alone. Contributions are always welcome and are tax-deductible.

Tips for Keeping Your Pet Safe This Fall by Judy Yacks

Fall is upon us, and along with it, cooler weather, football (snacks), and the fun holidays of Halloween and Thanksgiving (more food)! By taking precautions, your special “furiends” can enjoy the pleasures of autumn right along with you.

First and most importantly, antifreeze! Ingesting anti-freeze is deadly! Cats and dogs can be drawn to lick the sweet tasting substance. Be sure to check your car for leaks and keep all toxic bottles away from your pets.

Exposure! It doesn't have to be winter to be cold and it can be especially hard on puppies, senior pets, and small animals.

Keep the candy bowl and trick or treat bag out of reach. Along with chocolate, especially dark chocolate, candy with artificial sweeteners (xylitol) is toxic.

Make sure your pet can't escape from your main entrance and while you are at it, check their ID tags and update if necessary. Being unaware for just 1 second can result in your pet slipping out the door as you welcome guests for Thanksgiving or open it for Trick or Treaters.

Fleas, ticks, and mosquitos don't go by calendars, so it is important to continue to use flea, tick, and heartworm prevention.

Rodents are sneaking into homes to avoid the cold. Use extreme caution with poisons. They can kill your pet as well as the rodent.

The crisp, cooler air of autumn beckons you to enjoy walks and extra outdoor time with your best buddy before the really cold weather hits. Heeding these tips will help keep them safe to enjoy those walks with you!

Arts in the Park Craft Show Thanks by Amy Miller

HHGDR volunteers pulled together once again for the September 8th Arts in the Park at Newtown Park in Lawrenceburg, Indiana. The craft show was a huge success, raising $540!

We had lots of shoppers happy to support us and the Rescue! We sold table runners, bucket bags, cloth bowl wraps for taking hot bowls out of the microwave, jewelry, baked goods, pot holders, bibs, mahogany nuts, various holiday decor, dog treats, and bandanas, and crocheted blankets.

We could not have done it without the support of volunteers—whether it was for setting up, tearing down, help during the day, or those that spent hours making the lovely items we sold.

Special thanks to Mary Beth Gettins, Myreda Johnson, Nancy Schmidt, Beth Sedlock, Sandra Seidman, Kathie Walmsley, Jo Williams, and Judy & Tom Yacks. These folks made, donated, transported donations, took pictures of the event, and helped the day of the show.

A very special thanks from HHGDR to all that helped with the craft show, and especially to Amy Miller for organizing the whole event again this year!

Peanut Butter Treats

These dog treats come to us from HHGDR adopter and volunteer Beth Mack. They have always been popular at events!

- 2 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 Tbsp. baking powder
- 1 cup peanut butter (be sure it does not contain xylitol!)
- 1 cup milk

Preheat oven to 375. Combine flour and baking powder in one bowl. In another, mix peanut butter and milk; combine until reaches smooth consistency. Add to dry ingredients and mix well. Place dough on lightly floured surface and knead. Roll dough to 1/4" thickness; cut out with cookie cutter. Bake for 20 minutes on greased baking sheet until lightly browned. Cool on rack, then store in airtight container. These freeze very well.

Thank You!

Harlequin Haven FAQs

Q. Where do your dogs come from?

A. Our dogs come mainly from animal shelters where they have been picked up as strays, and also directly from individual owners who can no longer care for their dogs.

Q. Why do you charge so much for the dogs?

A. Our adoption fee does not cover the cost that we incur with most dogs. Very few come in with any medical history so we have to start from scratch with vaccinations, worming, etc. We do not get federal, state, or county funding—our funding comes from donations and adoption fees.

Q. Do we really need references?

A. Yes, you do. We carefully check all references to be sure that you and your family would be the best possible “forever” home for one of our dogs.

Q. Who decides whether I can adopt?

A. As a 501(3)(c) non-profit, HHGDR has a board of directors and a review committee which meet once a week to make decisions on HHGDR matters, including reviewing adoption applications.

Q. Do they have their shots?

A. All vaccinations are given including rabies and lyme. The dogs have also been wormed, heartworm checked, and placed on heartworm preventative.

MOZART DANE, Artist

MOZART DANE, artist, was purchased at the Ohio Amish Dog Auction but was discarded soon after at a county dog pound.

MOZART’S paw-paintings raise much-needed funds for HHGDR, and many grace their buyers’ homes. Of the more than 400 paintings originally created by Mozart, only about 30 remain available to be purchased.

While MOZART has crossed the Rainbow Bridge, his spirit lives on as he helps educate the public and bring attention to the plight of dogs who continue to languish in puppy mills.

You can follow MOZART’S Mission at HHGDR on Facebook and see about purchasing his paintings at https://hhdane.org/mozart/mozart\_paintings.asp.
